The Towns

Clermont (population 3000) is a historic rural town and a major hub for large regional coal mines, as well as a service town for agricultural properties in the area. It is located near several national parks.

Moranbah (population 9500) is a coal mining town which has a large fly-in fly-out work force. It is a town which offers a diverse range of sports and facilities sponsored by the regional council and mining companies. It is 120 km from Clermont.

The Facilities

The facilities include the churches in both Clermont and Moranbah with various hall facilities. It is expected our minister will live in Clermont and travel to Moranbah for regular services.

There are two primary and one secondary school in Clermont. Your medical needs are covered by a local hospital, two general practitioners, a dentist and pharmacist.

The Church

All Saints and St Francis have been covered by intentional locums who have started some exciting ministries which has seen eight confirmations and six baptisms this year (2026). They are congregations who are welcoming and thirsting to grow in the knowledge of our Lord.
