Go the distance by joining our Regional Officer Team

BCA seeks a Regional Officer for Queensland/NNSW to grow our supporter base, provide pastoral care to Field Staff, and provide regional leadership. We're looking for someone who has strong communication skills, a heart for mission, and a passion for sharing Jesus in rural, regional, and remote Australia.

About you

The ideal person will have appropriate theological training and ministry experience to enthusiastically communicate BCA's vision and mission.

You will have the passion to nurture current and establish new supporters – inspiring prayerful and financial partnership.

You will be strong in strategic and organisational skills; able to work both independently and in a team.

Key Focus Areas

- Enthuse and enlarge the Supporter Base in QLD/NNSW – Build and energise a broad and engaged supporter community that prayerfully and generously supports gospel ministry.
- Care pastorally for Field Staff – Provide intentional, Christ-centred pastoral care that supports wellbeing, resilience and ministry effectiveness for those serving in country locations.
- Provide Regional Leadership and Stewardship – Oversee the effective delivery of BCA's mission in Queensland/NNSW.

Why join BCA?

Founded in 1919, the Bush Church Aid Society is an evangelical mission agency working in partnership with Anglican bishops, dioceses and other Christian organisations. Our mission is to 'go the distance' to share Jesus in the bush. We undertake our mission by selecting, sending and supporting Field Staff who serve in rural, regional and remote parts of Australia.

As part of the Regional Officer team, you will play a key part in supporting our Field Staff through enlarging and enthusing the donor base and pastorally caring for Field Staff in Queensland/NNSW.
