

Ep. 355 | How to Trust God When You're Not Where You Thought You'd Be

Have you ever felt like the storm should have taken you out? In this episode, Christine Caine walks through Acts 27-28 and shows how the apostle Paul survived a storm, a shipwreck, and a snake bite—all because he refused to give up. With powerful encouragement, Christine reminds you that even when your journey doesn't go as planned, God still has a purpose for you—right where you are.

WHAT STORM, SHIPWRECK, OR “SNAKE BITE” HAS TRIED TO KEEP YOU FROM STEPPING INTO YOUR PURPOSE?

---

---

---

ARE YOU LIVING WITH A SENSE OF EVIL FOREBODING—OR A
HEART FULL OF TRUST AND HOPE?

---

---

---

WHAT DOES IT LOOK LIKE FOR YOU TO “SHAKE IT OFF” AND SERVE RIGHT WHERE YOU ARE?

---

---

---

SCRIPTURES REFERENCED IN THIS EPISODE:

ACTS 27-28 • 1 PETER 4:12-13 • JOHN 16:33 • JOB 14:1 • PROVERBS 15:15 • PROVERBS 31