

Ep. 386 | Godly Ambition vs Selfish Ambition (The Difference That Changes Everything)

Ambition can either drive you toward God’s purpose—or quietly pull your heart away from it. But the wrong kind of ambition can quietly pull your heart away from God. In a culture that constantly tells us to achieve more, build more, and prove more, it’s easy to confuse calling with striving. The Bible doesn’t condemn ambition—but it does warn us about the danger of selfish ambition. In this episode, Christine Caine explores the powerful difference between godly ambition and selfish ambition, revealing how our motivations shape our leadership, our relationships, and our spiritual health.

WHAT CURRENTLY MOTIVATES YOUR AMBITION: GOD’S PURPOSE OR PERSONAL VALIDATION?

WHERE MIGHT COMPARISON OR INSECURITY BE INFLUENCING YOUR DECISIONS OR GOALS?

HOW WOULD YOUR LIFE CHANGE IF PLEASING GOD MATTERED MORE THAN IMPRESSING PEOPLE?
