

Waiting as Worship: What God is Doing When Nothing Seems to Happen

In week seven of our summer series, Christine Caine speaks into the season most of us are trying to get through as fast as possible – the waiting room. The season between the promise and the fulfillment. The gap between what God said and what you can currently see. Most of us treat that gap as a problem to be solved or a delay to be endured. Christine Caine makes clear it's neither. It is the place where the deepest roots get formed.

WHAT SEASON ARE YOU CURRENTLY RESENTING, AND WHAT MIGHT GOD BE BUILDING IN YOU THROUGH IT THAT YOU CAN'T YET SEE?

WHERE IN YOUR LIFE ARE YOU WAITING TO BE DISCOVERED RATHER THAN SUBMITTING TO THE PROCESS OF BEING DEVELOPED? WHAT WOULD IT LOOK LIKE TO LEAN INTO THE STAGE YOU'RE IN RATHER THAN TRYING TO SKIP IT?

IS THERE SOMETHING IN YOUR LIFE RIGHT NOW THAT GENUINELY ISN'T FAIR? WHAT WOULD IT MEAN TO MAKE WHAT JESUS DID FOR YOU BIGGER THAN WHAT THAT PERSON OR SITUATION DID TO YOU – AND TO CHOOSE TRUST OVER BITTERNESS ANYWAY?

SCRIPTURES REFERENCED IN THIS EPISODE:

1 SAMUEL 16:13 • 1 SAMUEL 17:29 • 1 SAMUEL 20 • 1 SAMUEL 26 • 1 SAMUEL 29 • 2 SAMUEL 5:4 • HEBREWS 10:36 • JAMES 1:4 • ECCLESIASTES 3:11